

Protect to perform.

FOREWORD

As a Swiss family company, we have been solving challenging packaging problems for more than 40 years. We meet the complex requirements and needs of our customers, and offer protection and safety.

This is possible, only because we are open to new ideas and are constantly developing. We make technological progress a reality for our customers and turn it into customer benefits. Our industry expertise and specialist knowledge, as well as the passion and care of our employees, make this possible.

Früh Verpackungstechnik offers you a broad range of individual packaging solutions from a single source. We are a reliable and expert partner, one that is able to quickly and flexibly respond to your wishes and that helps you to continuously move forward.

Hans-Peter Früh, CEO, is the second generation of the family to lead the Swiss family company, which was founded in 1980.

CREDO

We find the best answers to the most difficult packaging questions. Time and time again.

Our employees, customers and suppliers are the basis of our success. We are fair and honest with one another.
